A Premature Fight.

So confident are some of the Bloomfield Democrats that Grover Cleveland is going to be elected next fall that a fight for the postmastership of this town is already on between Mr. Francis Law and Mr. Thomas Flannery. It is not long since both of the above named gentlemen were vehemently declaring themselves they are in, and if they are not all right out of politics. The young Democrats | we keep them in the barn." will do well to keep an eye on both of

The Dog on the Farm. A farmer once told the Listener that there was nothing in the world that would keep crows out of a field of young boy with a gun. He had tried all manner of scarecrows that ever were invented, and hung strings about in all sorts of ways, and the wise birds came in and pulled up the corn just the same. There was once a time, when people first thought about it, when a white string around a field would keep out crows- AMZI DODD, they thought it was a trap. But it took
